CHARITY POSTCARDS

THE WORLD'S FINEST ROSES IN YOUR LETTERBOX.

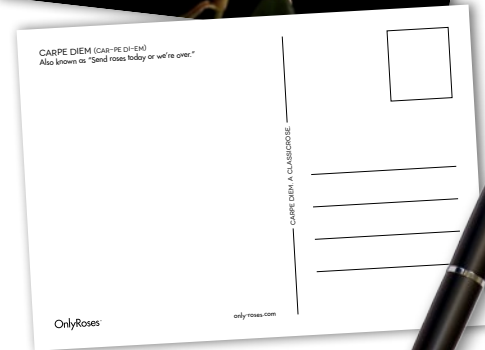

Our range of Charity Postcards features photographs from our 'ClassicRose Names' series, along with witty interpretations of their meaning. Photographed by Simon West, the cards feature exquisite single roses each with their name alongside.

"Think of it as an elegant antidote to constant texting," says OnlyRoses owner Sabine Schmitt.

"People can express their love, just say hello or restart a conversation and they do it in a gently amusing way."

Feeling bad about forgetting an occasion? Then send Amnesia. There's 'Limbo' for awkward conversations and 'Friendship' for 'real friends with mailing addresses. They cost a reasonable £1.50 each, and the clever part is we're donating £1 of each card to Charity! We'll choose a different charity every year, and this year we chose to give to "Action for Children" (Registered charity: 1097940/SC038092)
